

Victims response to Document 149. Filed 02-03-20

Case No: 2:18-cr-00092-RAJ.

As identified by the government as victim in this case, It is important for my conversations w/Mr. Werner to be relayed with accuracy. Mr. Werner appears to have misunderstood the nature and tenure of our telephone conversation.

my husband, myself, Mr. Werner and Pamela Johnson all spoke by telephone at a point preceding the filing of this document.

I stated clearly that I cared little about whether this continuance should be granted or denied and that I only wanted my property returned,

(665 oz. Tray .999 Ag)

that I had stored in Mr.

Hanson's vaults as indicated

in our storage agreement of Sept.
2015.

This is contrary to Mr.
Werner's assertion that, "... more than 30 telephone calls & ... victims uniformly opposed ^{the lengthy} to a continuance." (Lines 2-3
p. 5 of 8; Document 149)

In addition, Mr. ~~H~~
Werner has mischaracterized the storage customers and the disposition of their

personal property at various vaults operated by N.W.T.M.

(line 14-15 page 3 of 8 document 147)

Mr. Warner ~~states~~ writes, "There are more than 53 (storage customers) bullion storage customers victims who are missing some part of their bullion. DKT # 1 at 12.

The fact is that the majority of these 53 storage customers are missing all of their

property. In my case 665 oz. Troy, 999 Ag.
and no part has ever been returned. In fact the trustee and his professionals have never addressed the contractual obligations owed me or any other storage costumer. ~~THE MR HANSON~~ Neither Hanson nor Erdman are in any way responsible

(5)

for the actions or inactions of the trustee Calvert or his professionals.

The case files, dockets and other papers in the bankruptcy case tell a clear story, and the villains are not Edman nor Hanson.

In addition, when I reported my suspicions about the trustee Calvert and

his counsel to Mr Werner and Ms. Johnson, my reports fell on deaf ears and such reports have never been accurately replied to this court, law enforcement, or anyone else for that matter.

When I asked Mr Werner
if he had ever read the entirety of the dockets in the bankruptcy case, ... he

flatly stated, No., as if the document their have no weight in these proceedings.
To the contrary, I suspect that those file go unread due to the fact that they paint a much different picture than the common narrative being portrayed by Mr. Werner, Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Colvert,
Mr. New, Mr. Northrup,
the media and the D.O.J.
(9)

Be that as it may the facts are the facts, the tooth fairy is not real,
the moon is not made of green cheese, and neither ~~my~~ my husband nor myself ever said what document 14/7 purports.

addendum to letter

also, we have asked to be mailed the documents in this case as broadband service in southern Appalachia where we live is inadequate to monitor the Pacer system.
This has never happened.

Can we please be provided such moving forward?

Respectfully ever, JSH. SJM.
